

BOOK/READING MATERIAL DONATION POLICY

The Quezon City Public Library (QCPL) is always grateful to receive/accept donation of books and other reading materials from various donors like civic spirited individuals, foundations, organizations, and friends of the library that helped augment and increase library collections.

Nevertheless, donors must understand and follow the existing policies for donation as follows:

1. All donated materials will be evaluated and assessed by the Collection Development librarian.
2. Books and other reading materials will be weeded/disposed if:
 - With poor physical condition/poor appearance;
 - Unneeded and inexpensive reprints;
 - Obsolete and outdated contents.
3. Selected materials will be processed with the option to be distributed to the Main Library, Branch Libraries and recipients of Share-A-Book program.
4. The QCPL reserves the right to dispose/weed all donated materials without the consent of the donor if found to be under the number 2 policy.
5. QCPL does not accept inquiries from donors on their donated materials.
6. All donations become the property of QCPL and are not returnable.
7. Donations will undergo to a 3-day quarantine period and UV light sterilization before the assessment of the librarian.
